

Prevent

at any time by calling the ACT Early Support line on 0800 011 3764.

Source: Home Office, Individuals referred to and supported through the Prevent Programme, England and Wales, April 2024 to March 2025, Table 2

Facts about Prevent

- Prevent is not about policing beliefs
- Prevent have no powers of arrest
- Prevent is not an emergency service
- Prevent doesn't deal with FGM or gangs
- Prevent doesn't deal with people becoming more religious

How Channel works

- If assessment indicates a risk, case is referred to Channel
- Panel is made up of professionals from different agencies
- They decide what support is needed
- Panel is chaired by the local authority and meets monthly
- Channel is consensual
- Panel will create a bespoke package of support:

How Channel works

- Panel will create a bespoke package of support:
 - Address the grievance
 - Counter the ideology
 - Link in with other support
- Panel then creates a support plan
- Panel continues to monitor progress
- Once there is no risk, the panel closes the case