Helping young people be the best they can be

For thousands of children across the UK, challenges are growing.

Rising mental health issues, poverty, inequality and limited opportunities can leave them carrying burdens that feel too heavy to manage on their own.

With your support, we can fund local charities in every part of the UK to help ensure children have someone by their side when they need it most.

You can find out about projects we support locally to you at bbc.co.uk/cin
